CHINESE SUCCESSES NORTH OF CANTON: SEVERE FIGHTING IN SHANSI: JAPANESE WITHDRAW IN HUPEH

"Will you stop scuttling yourself, Ermyntude... people are beginning to talk about our nationality..."

SHIUIHNG, Jan. 18 (Central)—Nganchanngau, on the Canton-Hankow Railway, 33 miles north of Canton, reverted to Chinese control on Tuesday. The Chinese launched a determined attack and after suffering 500 casualties, the Japanese withdrew from the town.

Hard-pressed by the Chinese, more Japanese troops at Kuntien, also on the Railway, 25 miles north of Canton, have withdrawn eastward. Fungchuen, a village at the western end of Kuntien, was recaptured by the Chinese on Tuesday.

A Chinese column is reported to be heading for Kongsun, ten miles north of Canton.

In South-west Shansi, the Chinese are attacking Chinshen and

IN NORTH HUPEH

FANCHENG, HUPEH, Jan. 18 (Central)—Hard pressed by the Chinese, Japanese forces north-east of Suhsien, about 34 miles west of Yingshan in North Hupeh, have started a withdrawal.

The Chinese following in pursuit are attempting to bottle them up at Kuenshan and Maanshan. Over 3,000 Japanese at Huchia-hen, north of Suhsien, counter-attacked with the support of over 20 tanks and planes on Tuesday. They were driven back.

The Japanese at Yangtschen, north-east of Chungking in central Hupeh are reported to have twice resorted to the use of gas. A drive towards Fengshingchen on Tuesday was repelled.

For the past 24 hours eight more shocks were felt in the previously devastated area in northern Anatolia but hitherto there are no reports of casualties or damage.

In the Bursa region, the Karadaghy Plains are again inundated and fifteen villages are submerged.

CHEAP TRICKERY OF YONAI APPOINTMENT: EMPEROR'S INVOLVEMENT IN FRAUD REPORTED

Man Who Torpedoed German Alliance

SPECIAL TO THE HONGKONG DAILY PRESS

TOKYO, Jan. 18 (Havas)—The suddenness of the appointment of ADMIRAL MITSUMASA YONAI to the Premiership when the general public and press were convinced that either PRINCE FUMIMARO KONOYE or GEN. S. HATA would succeed GEN. ABE was unprecedented in Japanese political history.

The announcement made a deep sensation in all circles, particularly Army ones, which were convinced that the Emperor would call Gen. Hata as the normal successor to Gen. Abe. This conviction became almost a certainty when Gen. Hata was summoned to the Palace on Sunday evening when the decision to appoint Admiral Yonai had already been reached.

It was later revealed that Mr. Kurahai Yusa, Lord-Keeper of the Privy Seal, insisted on this "camouflaging" and wantonly left the Japanese press to announce that Gen. Hata was the most likely candidate.

The Throne's tactics in placing the public and the Army before a fait accompli was motivated by the desire to quash, in advance any rumours that Admiral Yonai was strongly opposed by the Army mainly because the Navy, and the Admiral himself, had been strongly opposed to the projected military alliance with Germany and Italy as advocated by the Army.

The Admiral had even been described as the man who torpedoed the alliance before Hitler himself scuttled it. Nevertheless, with typical discipline, the Japanese Army and General Hata accepted the Emperor's command and the latter accepted to retain his post as War Minister under Adm. Yonai.

BITTER EPISODE
The only sign of this episode was the very bitter article published in the Kokumin Shinbun, which is closely connected with Army circles, stating that Admiral Yonai's appointment was due to underhand action by "statesmen close to the Throne" who had been looking forward to him as a future candidate for Premiership "ever since the time he quashed the Japanese-German alliance by opposing it when as Navy Minister in the Hiranuma Cabinet."

"Evacuation Home" For Princesses

Special to the H.K. Daily Press
LONDON, Jan. 18 (Havas)—Princesses Elizabeth and Margaret Rose left Buckingham Palace for their new "evacuation home" in the country.

Anglo-French Prosecution Of War "A Family Affair"

LONDON, Jan. 18 (Reuter)—Mr. Leslie Burgin, Minister of Supply, receiving journalists on the eve of the return to Paris of M. Dautry, the French Minister of Supply, said, "We are making full use not only of the raw materials of both our Empires but of their manufacturing sources as well."

"The general aims are that any weakness in economy of one country shall be made up by the other." Both Mr. Burgin and M. Dautry said that Anglo-French collaboration was now a somewhat too weak word to apply to the relations between the two countries.

The French Minister said, "There are no more secrets of frontiers between us. Our prosecution of the war is a complete family affair. We have roped ourselves together for a hard climb to victory and we shall both arrive at the top together."

Pearl River Opening—So?

THE INTIMATION PROBLEMATIC

TOKYO, Jan. 18 (Reuter)—Intimation that the Pearl River would be opened to international shipping shortly along with the Yangtze was given by a Japanese naval spokesman. He emphasised that the Japanese Government has no intention of making a bargaining point of the Yangtze question.

No date has yet been set for the re-opening but the Japanese authorities on the spot are hurrying up preparations, including repairs to wharves and third Power vessels, which hitherto have been requisitioned for military purposes.

Asked what third Power would benefit most from the opening of the Yangtze, the spokesman was of the opinion that, judging from past business results, British received the most benefit, though the United States too would naturally share in the benefit. Replying to a question, the spokesman said that he understood that a conference between Wang Ching-wei and Liang Chung-chih is being held at the end of January in connection with the establishment of the new Central Government of China.

RICE SHORTAGE IN PEIPING

CHINESE OFFICIAL'S WIFE KILLED

PEIPING, Jan. 18 (Reuter)—Believed to be a direct outcome of the present acute food situation in Peiping, the wife of Chow Chuang-sheng, President of the Peking Chinese Chamber of Commerce, was killed by gunmen when she was leaving hospital after visiting her daughter.

The gunmen first wounded the chauffeur and a Chinese attendant and then fired three shots at Mrs. Chow the third bullet, piercing the stomach, proving fatal. The gunmen escaped.

It is understood that Chow himself was the real objective of the gunmen but he was out at the time. The cause of the crime is not revealed by investigators but it is understood that it may have been due to dissatisfaction over the present food situation for which Chow may have been partially blamed.

ALLIED WARSHIPS WAITING FOR COLUMBUS CREW

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 18 (Reuter)—It is reported that two Australian cruisers and one Canadian gunboat are lying off San Francisco Harbour, spread like a fan 100 miles out.

This has prompted the Immigration authorities to change their plans to ship the crew of the scuttled German liner Columbus in Japanese ships.

The Immigration authorities say that the crew is temporarily held at the Immigration station. It had been understood that the crew would return to Germany, via Japan and Russia.

The noise of the explosions was heard 20 miles away and flames shot high into the sky. The cause is not known at present.

Nazis In Same Economic Straits As In 1916

No Mean Achievement For A Brand New Ministry

LONDON, Jan. 18 (BWS)—A sharp shock has been administered to German economy as a result of the operation of Britain's economic warfare and the revelations of the Minister, Mr. Ronald Cross, in the House of Commons last night made it clear that after four-and-a-half months of war Germany is in something like the same economic straits to which she was brought after two years in the last war.

Although helped by 1914-18 experiments it is, says The Times, no mean achievement for a brand new Ministry, which had to improvise a far-reaching organisation for obtaining necessary information for taking appropriate action, to make effective control of Germany's supplies as effective almost from the beginning of this war as it was in the later stages of the last.

The Daily Telegraph says Britain's offensive against enemy trade has been prompt and vigorous. Not only have we swept the seas clean of German ships but our contraband control has reduced to insignificant proportions imports to Germany by way of neutral shipping. Initial friction with neutrals, which inevitably accompanies the legitimate exercise of this belligerent right, is being gradually smoothed out and it is gratifying, in this connection, to learn of the growing and successful application of the navicert system.

GRAF SPEE ECHO: NO POISON GAS

LONDON, Jan. 18 (BWS)—The Captains of the British merchant vessels who were prisoners on board the German battleship Graf Spee at the time of the action off River Plate, who have just returned to England, state that after the battle the German dead were laid out on the deck and the corpses were sprayed with a very strong disinfectant having a pungent and offensive odour.

A great part of the ship was also treated in this way. The British prisoners on board the Graf Spee, moreover, maintained that no suggestion of the possible use of gas shells was made, even by the most inexperienced on board the Graf Spee.

GOAL - SCORING RECORD AT CAROLINE HILL

Fox Nets Five For Army In Kotewall Cup Match

A LOCAL FOOTBALL RECORD WAS ESTABLISHED BY FOX yesterday while playing for the Army against the Navy in the first round of the Kotewall Cup at Caroline Hill yesterday, when he netted six goals, two of which were headed in. One of the goals was disallowed, however, for off-side by another player but Fox's brilliant feat enabled the soldiers to defeat the sailors by five goals to one, Hendy being responsible for the solitary goal scored by the Navy.

It is the first time on record that a player has scored as many as six, or even five, goals in a first-class competition match in Hongkong.

The game was an entirely one-sided affair with the Army in possession most of the time. Play was slow and scrappy and was marked by a great deal of wild kicking in which both sides were equally to blame.

Ten minutes from the start Fox received a good pass from Pearson to shoot in a fast one. Within a few minutes he headed in another. The Army continued to press and Thorburn tried to score but shot wide.

In a melee at the Navy goal mouth Robinson was injured but resumed play after first aid treatment which held up the game for about five minutes.

Fox headed in a third but owing to an off-side offence by another player, the goal was not allowed. Shortly before half-time Thomas passed to Fox in midfield and the latter took the ball up in a fine

HONGKONG, JANUARY 19, 1940

QUACK, QUACK
A CIVIL WAR!

IT IS A MATTER FOR SOME REGRET that the Shanghai office of an agency as reputable as Reuter's should so far be influenced by the environment of the occupied
territories as to permit itself
not only to fall into the trap
of accepting the Japanese
version of happenings in the interior of Free China, but also to perpetrate the sin, un-
pardonable for an organization devoted to the accurate
reporting of news, of commenting on such happenings
in the way most pleasing to China's enemies.

THE LATEST EXAMPLE of
this is the sensational report,
given the dignity of a place
on the poster of one of our local contemporaries, regarding the alleged menace of a large scale civil war in the province of Shansi. This report, issued, of all places, in Shanghai, and quoting unnamed "travellers" (surely
too flimsy a peg for a scoop
so resounding) is inaccurate
from one end to the other.
Two hundred and fifty thousand men, it begins, are involved, belonging to two Shansi armies under the command of General Yen Hsi-shan. Yet it is well known to everyone with a glimmer of
knowledge of the situation,
that the total of all armies in
the war zone of which Gen.
Yen is the head—including
not only provincial units but also many Central Government divisions under General
Wei Li-huang and the entire Eighth Route Army, barely reaches this figure. Fighting
against the Japanese, it says,
has been suspended. Yet we know of continuous Chinese triumphs in the Chungtiao
mountain range, and not even Domek has been bold enough
to report the sensational
"mopping-up" of the defending forces that would have been so easy of accomplishment had the defenders
truly turned from resistance
to mutual strife. The "travellers" who, having presumably come from the enemy-
occupied parts of Shansi
to occupied Shanghai through other occupied territory are
so well versed in all that is going on behind the Chinese lines have many other interesting "facts" to report—
all of the same calibre.

BUT THIS IS NOT ALL.
From mere feckless reporting, Reuter's Shanghai writers
pass imperturbably into the
more attractive realm of pro-
phesy. "The Eighth Route Army," they say, "may at any moment decide to go to the assistance of their friends (one of the allegedly conflicting armies). If this should happen, Central Government
troops would, it is declared (by whom?) have to be sent to aid the other side. This would mean open warfare between the Central Government troops and the Communist Eighth Route Army."

Apart from the aspect involving the ethical responsibility of a news-agency
giving currency to irrespon-

A SCIENTIST'S
VIEW OF LIFEY'S MEN'S CLUB
ADDRESS

Dr. Y. T. Chiu, Professor of Chemistry of the Lingnan University, was the guest speaker at the weekly luncheon of the Hongkong Y's Men's Club yesterday. His subject was "A Scientist's View of Life."

Addressing the gathering, Dr.
Chiu said that to a scientist, life
was a puzzle and a mystery.

Dr. Chiu cited the work of Nobel,
who invented dynamite, and although many had been benefited
by his achievement, millions had died through the misuse of his invention. No scientist would enjoy life
if he were to devote his whole time
to invent some deadly thing in order to kill.

Dr. Chiu also dwelt on the patience
and perseverance of the scientists in the laboratories to find ways and means to lighten
the sufferings of human beings.

During discussion, the speaker
disclosed that in the near future,
Hongkong will see the product of soya bean milk. He remarked that the liquid was essential for health,
and was just as nourishing as
cow's milk.

ulatory message. Through your unflinching effort, we are absolutely
confident that you will help promote the anti-aggression campaign
and achieve at an early date the programme of national reconstruction."

CONFIDENCE IN CHUNGKING

Speaking at the Vagabond Rotary
meeting, held at Cafe de Chine
yesterday, Mr. T. C. Tai, of the Bank of China, in Chungking, who arrived here recently, commented
on the confidence of the people in Chungking who lived comfortably
in spite of the high cost of living.

Mr. Geo. Auyang presided at the meeting.
Those present were Messrs Y. Y.
Wong, of Amoy, T. T. Poon, Gock

Nazi Officer's Anxiety To See His Wife Led To The Discovery Of German Plans
Against Belgium & Holland

LONDON, Jan. 18 (Reuter).—A remarkable story of how the Belgian and Dutch Governments came into possession of the Nazi plans, which led them to take special defence measures, appears in the Daily Telegraph.

It is stated that a German officer's haste to rejoin his newlymarried wife was the prime cause in the chain of events which resulted in the plans falling into Belgian hands.

A German aeroplane containing
two officers made a forced landing
at Mechelen, on the Meuse, last Wednesday. One of them carried very secret documents relating to the transfer of twenty-two divisions of troops from the neighbourhood of Berlin to the left bank of the Rhine. Some were to go to the Dutch frontier, while the great majority were destined for the Belgian frontier.

RECENTLY MARRIED.
This officer belonged to the group
of armies with headquarters in Cologne and had been ordered to take the documents from Berlin to Cologne travelling by train, but he was only recently married and his wife was living in Cologne, and he was naturally anxious to reach his destination as soon as possible.

Hearing that a friend was about
to pilot an aeroplane to Cologne,
he decided to take this chance of
reaching wife much more speedily.
The pilot, however, made a navigational mistake and crossed the Rhine northwards of Cologne and found himself over the Dutch border.
He was greeted by anti-aircraft
fire and subsequently had to make a forced landing.

The officer tried to set fire to the papers with matches which he brought from a peasant, but was prevented by Belgian soldiers.
The two Germans were taken to the nearest military post for questioning and the Belgian Intelligence Service was speedily able to confirm that the troop movements
mentioned in the documents were actually occurring.

H.K.U. ARTS
ASSCN. PLAY"The Professor
From Peking"

The Hongkong University Arts
Association, which successfully produced Prof. S. I. Hsiong's translation of "Lady Pelecius Stream" a few years ago, last night presented
the same author's latest play, "The Professor from Peking," in the Great Hall.

The performance was chiefly for students of local schools, and the first public performance will take place tonight, when H. E. the Governor is expected to attend.

COMPLICATED CHARACTER
Produced by Mr. E. L. Mackenzie,
the play is an attempt to analyse
the complicated character of Professor Chang, a revolutionary and an opportunist. Its three acts have been designed to bring in the three main events in recent Chinese history: the 1919 students' rising in Peking, the Hankow split of 1927
and the Japanese occupation of Nanking in 1937.

Mr. Luk Mang-hei plays the part of the Professor, whilst others in the cast are Mr. Leslie Sum, Mr.
John Huang, Mr. Yu Tsai-siu, Miss
Catherine Lai, Miss Ng Tung-king,
Miss Wong Tui-ho and Miss Chang
Pik-lin.

Mr. P. K. Chu, Secretary of the Hongkong branch of the Chinese-American Institute of Cultural Relations, who has been appointed Chinese Vice-General in Manila,
will sail for the Philippines on Jan.
28.

Newsettes

The French Minister of Armaments has arrived in London for important discussions with Mr.
Leslie Burgin, Minister of Supply (Reuter).

Princess Chi of the West Banner and Princess Pa of the East
Banner, called on Generals Yen
Hsi-shan and Chu Shou-kwang,
Superintendent and Assistant Superintendent to the Suiyuan
Mongolian Local Autonomy Council at an undisclosed place on January 13 when they presented
flags to them as a token of respect.

Following an eight-day visit, Mr.
Chen Li-fu, Minister of Education,
left Kweliang for Chungking on Tuesday. Prior to his departure,
he told interviewers that he will bring up the question of the establishment of an Agricultural
and Engineering College in Kwei-
chow before the Executive Yuan
after his return to Chungking. He said he was happy to note that the universities and colleges in Kweichow were able to carry on
under trying circumstances.

The Chinese Labour Federation
on Wednesday held a meeting in commemoration of the 18th anniversary of the death of Huang Ai
and Pang Jen-hsun, two Hunanese
labour leaders, who were executed
outside Liu Yang Men (gate),
Changsha, on January 17, 1923.
They incurred the fire of the then government authorities through their leadership in the labour
movement. Mr. Ma Chao-chun,
former Mayor of Nanking, presided at the meeting and more than 800 workers were present.

CROWDS HELPED CZECHS
TO DODGE GESTAPOEscaped Prisoners Fight
For Allies

The Czech Legion are ready to go to the front. This band of resolute, determined men, each man a refugee from his own country, have been in training since the beginning of the war.
Many suffered nights of starvation hiding in the mountains,
were hunted by the Gestapo, were caught and imprisoned before
they escaped across the frontier.

From all over Europe they have come to fight with the Allies,
writes an Evening Standard reporter.

One of them told me how the people of Czechoslovakia, at great
risk, helped these men to escape
from the Germans.

"The people everywhere
helped us. Everyone hates the Hitler regime, and those who cannot get out of the country
serve their country by helping others to escape."
My informant was called one
day to the office of the Gestapo.
Some informant had given him
away.

He was accused of treason and
given over to two Nazis, who marched him off to prison.

As they marched across the
market-place outside the town hall,
the Czech broke his hands free and
struck out at his guards.

THEIR SECRET

Crowds jostled the guards,
and the prisoner ran for
his bicycle, outside the Gestapo
office, and rode away.

Nearly every man has some story
of adventure to tell. One story—
one of the most thrilling of the war—they will not tell. That is the story of the escape of 600 of Czechoslovakia's "ace" pilots who will now fight for the Allies.
It is a secret. The Nazis will never know how it was done.

ECONOMIC STRAITS

concluded with neutral governments, must be regarded as one
of the important things in the speech.

Commenting on the general
effect of British economic pressure, the Manchester Guardian
says, "It will become really heavy
only when Germany can create an environment of victory and other
harder measures we shall have to use, before we snatch it. That is the thought which the people
should always remember."

CLOSER CO-ORDINATION

Several newspapers, while fully recognising economic pressure is one of the most vital factors upon which reliance to win the war will be placed, emphasise the need for
still closer co-ordination in various directions.

The News-Chronicle calls for the appointment of a Minister to give new direction and impetus to the economic policy in the war—
a Minister with authority to coordinate the work of several departments and see that a boldly
conceived plan is carried out.

The Times also, while agreeing that the "kind of organisation towards which Mr. Cross is working will doubtless secure the necessary co-ordination between the Ministry of Economic Warfare, the Board of Trade and other departments concerned," says it does not touch the larger problem of dovetailing this activity into a whole campaign for stimulating
export trade in general of deciding how much of export power
should be used, if necessary, on an uneconomic basis to block Germany's access to supplies, and how much of it must be used to pay for the supplies we need ourselves.

TRANSITION

And this in itself is only part of the still larger problem of how we can best use our resources in manpower, capital, equipment and
financial reserves to the win war
as quickly as possible. For us
though not for Germany, transition from peacetime to wartime
economy involved immense dis-location. And transition is still far from complete.

LATE SERGEANT
CRANK

SHANGHAI, Jan. 18 (Reuter).— That the fatal shot which hit the late Sergeant Duncan E. Crank
was fired from the gun of a Chinese constable, Sheng Chi-ching,
attached to the West Hongkong Police Station, has been definitely established as the result of ballistic examination.

The constable was placed under arrest on the day of the incident
that week and will be held until
early next month pending the result of the inquest on the Sergeant
on January 26.

Nazi - Soviet
SquabbleUSE OF POLISH
RAILWAY

BUCHAREST, Jan. 18 (Reuter).—
The Czernaul-Lwow-Cracow Railway, by which the Germans hoped to import large quantities of Rumanian produce following its reopening in December, has again
ceased to function.

ACCUSATIONS MADE

The Germans accuse the Ru-
sians of making difficulties for the transport of trains across Soviet-occupied Poland, while the Rusians say that the Germans and Rumanians failed to fulfil the terms
of agreement under which the railway resumed working.

A German Commission is now in
the frontier investigating the position.

SINO - MALAYAN
CULTURAL ASSN.

SINGAPORE, Jan. 18 (Central).—
A suggestion has been made for the organisation of a Sino-Malayan Cultural Association following
the arrival in Singapore of the Chinese Mohammedans Goodwill Mission.

Meanwhile, a committee has been formed to collect medicine for the wounded soldiers and refugees.

Since its arrival here on January
10th, the Mission has been heartily welcomed by Mohammedans, overseas Chinese and government officials. Sent by the Chinese Mohammedans' National Salvation, it is composed of three prominent Mohammedans, Messrs. Ma Tienying, Wu Chien-hsun and Ma. Ta-wu.

Chinese Ambassador to the United States and Chairman of the National Amateur Athletic Federation,
a girls' basketball team and a volleyball team and a singing and
dramatic troupe will shortly tour
Rangoon and the neighbouring districts.

Mr. U. B. Lwin, head of the re-

China and vice-chairman of the Sino-Burmese Cultural Associa-

U.S. SAFETY ZONE
& BRITISH REPLY

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18 (Reuter).—The U.S. Secretary of State,
Mr. Cordell Hull, said he preferred to examine all phases of the British reply regarding the safety zone before making a statement on the United States position. Mr. Hull added that he had heard nothing from Germany and France regarding the safety zone.

NAZI ATTACK

LONDON, Jan. 18 (Reuter).—The German press is now busily attacking Britain's reply to the American Republics' on the Graf Spee battle
and the suggested safety zone.

The Deutsche Allgemeine Zeit-
ung, for instance, says that the British reply proves that the British conception of neutrality is different
from that of other countries.

BRITAIN'S REVENUE
AND EXPENDITURE

LONDON, Jan. 18 (BWS).—Revenue for week showed a surplus
of £37,289,000 over the week's expenditure, reducing the deficit to date to £280,247,000.

Ordinary revenue for the financial year to date totals £632,697,- 000, while ordinary expenditure amounts to £912,944,000. Total expenditure from loan account
stands at £262,662,000.

LONDON, Jan. 18 (Reuter).—
British Contraband Control detained 3,384 tons of contraband
goods destined for Germany during the week ending Jan. 13, making a total since the beginning of the war, of 47,000 tons.

SITUATION IN THE LOWLANDS REMAINS UNCHANGED: GERMANS SEEK EXCUSE IN CHARGING DUTCH WITH TERRITORY VIOLATION

French Troops Prepare Flooding Measures To Stem Any Offensive

BRUSSELS, Jan. 18 (Reuter)—The situation in the Lowland countries remains unchanged and it is reported that official Belgian quarters express the opinion that if nothing happens in the international situation in the next twenty-four hours, some of the troops mobilised may be released.

The Belgian Foreign Minister had interviews with the British, French and German Ambassadors, but no statements have been issued.

LONDON, Jan. 18 (Reuter)—Despite the Dutch official denial, the German News Agency yesterday repeated the assertion of the German High Command communiqué that a Dutch plane flew over German territory, near Nordhorn, on January 13.

The Agency stated that Dutch violation of German territory had been established beyond doubt, adding that the plane was recognised by the colour of its markings.

KINHWA, Jan. 18 (Central)—A three-year administrative scheme for Chekiang has been promulgated by the Provincial Government.

ALLIED ORDERS FOR PLANES FROM U.S.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18 (Reuter)—According to reliable reports, proposals by Britain and France for tripling their present orders for American warplanes were discussed yesterday by President Roosevelt and Mr. Morganthau and Army and Navy officials.

Britain and France are said to have notified the United States that they contemplate ordering, for speed delivery, upwards of 8,000 planes and even more engines.

RUMANIAN FRONTIERS FORTIFIED

POWERFUL DEFENCE LINES BUILT

BUCHAREST, Jan. 18 (Havas)—Rumania is at present completing the construction of a strongly fortified line covering her frontiers, chiefly west and north, according to well-informed circles.

It is reported that King Carol ordered the construction of a fortified line immediately after the Munich Agreement and tens of thousands of workers have carried out the order.

POWERFUL LINE

There is now a gigantic 138-foot wide dug out all along the northern frontier which can be flooded within one hour. Behind the moat is a powerful line of machine-gun nests and anti-tank barriers to protect the frontiers.

Because of their high cost, concrete defence works and used only in highly strategic places, notably for the protection of the mountain passes in the Carpathian Range.

SPANISH-BULGARIAN COMMERCIAL PACT

MADRID, Jan. 18 (Reuter)—Spain has concluded a commercial Agreement with Bulgaria.

Italian Independence Emphasized

FASCIST LEADER'S SPEECH

ROME, Jan. 18 (Reuter)—A warning that Italy might "find it necessary to take up arms at any moment," was uttered by Gen. Emilio Muzi, the new Secretary of the Fascist Party, in a speech to Provincial Fascist leaders.

He said: "Let no one sleep with the illusion that Italy's present attitude to the war will last forever."

FASCIST ATTITUDE

Gen. Muzi affirmed the uncompromising attitude of Fascism towards Democracy, Bolshevism and Bourgeois Ideology.

The statement is regarded in diplomatic circles as emphasising Italy's complete independence in her foreign policy.

Considerable irritation has been caused in Fascist circles by the frequent allusions in the British and French press, since the recent Italian Cabinet reshuffle, to a possible change in favour of the Allies of the Italian Government's attitude.

NO CHANGE

Gen. Muzi declared: "The recent changes in the Government and the Party should not be interpreted as indicating any change whatever in the path followed by the revolution."

IL DUCE'S EFFORTS

Havas message adds that General Muzi added that Italians should not be under the illusion that Italy will be able to maintain for ever her present privileged position, which was only rendered possible through Il Duce's unceasing efforts.

LEAVE FOR B.E.F. TENSION EASES

LONDON, Jan. 18 (Reuter)—Limited Home leave for the B.E.F. will be resumed, according to a message from Reuter's special correspondent in France.

Tonight from various rail-roads, trains are carrying soldiers on the way home.

This fact indicates that the tension of the week-end, though not relaxed, at any rate had eased considerably.

BITTER COLD

PARIS, Jan. 18 (Reuter)—Both land and air activity on the Western Front has been reduced and practically suspended as a result of the bitter cold and further heavy storms during the night.

Yesterday's war communiqué states that it was a quiet day on the whole. There was activity by our patrols.

hunters for Finland—believed to number 10,000—who have been undergoing training to fit them for conditions of semi-Arctic warfare, would soon be ready to enter the fighting line as a complete unit.

ATTACKS HALTED

HELSINKI, Jan. 18 (Reuter)—The bitter weather has brought to a halt the Soviet air attacks because few of their planes are equipped with any device to prevent ice from forming on the wings.

Little activity took place in land operations for the same reason, though a Finnish communiqué speaks of patrols harassing the Soviet troops in the region north of Lake Ladoga.

FUTURE OF SWEDEN

Special to the H.K. Daily Press STOCKHOLM, Jan. 18 (Havas)—The Swedish Foreign Minister, M. Christian Guenther, in a speech stressed that help to Finland was an integral of Swedish foreign policy. He insisted that Sweden's future was very much dependent upon Finland's although Sweden must take into consideration the necessity to maintain a neutral attitude in the European conflict.

With both sides finding it difficult to advance along the Franco-German border, the European conflict may extend to some countries. Therefore, the Swedish Government should take every care to avoid measures which might be considered contrary to her neutrality.

The Prime Minister, M. Albin Peter Hansson, also stressed the determination to grant aid to Finland. At the same time the Government were taking steps to curb Communism and were ready to take drastic measures if necessary.

"SHEER INVENTION"

MOSCOW, Jan. 18 (Havas)—The Tass Agency has branded as "sheer invention" the reports appearing in the Frankfurter Zeitung asserting that the Soviet claimed the annexation of the Petsamo region in Northern Finland. The official Soviet mouthpiece declared that such a demand was never voiced by the Soviet.

REPORT DENIED

PARIS, Jan. 18 (Reuter)—Prince Aage has denied the report that he has offered his services to the Finnish Army.

The Prince said that despite his great sympathy for the heroic Finnish nation, he would consider it his duty to remain at his post as major in the French Foreign Legion.

Fresh Russian Attack On Salla Front: Big Battle Raging In The Worst Cold In Finland

HELSINKI, Jan. 18 (Reuter)—Fighting in the worst cold that Finland has experienced in 35 years, the Finns are facing a new Russian onslaught on the Salla Front.

The Russians have launched three new attacks in their drive westwards towards the Gulf of Bothnia and a big battle is still raging.

Two of these attacks have been broken and the Finns are counter-attacking and advancing towards Salla from the west. The Finns have retaken Kursu.

SOVIET SUCCESS

Only in the south have the Russian had success and here the Finns are falling back in good order to new positions at Vitava.

Finnish patrols report that the Russians were withdrawing heavy guns, presumably as a precaution to avoid the heavy losses that they suffered in the defeat on the Suomussalmi Front.

EASTERN FRONT

On the Eastern Front the Finns scored a big success near Kitea, north of the lake, where, after three days' hard fighting, the Russians have suddenly fallen back, abandoning several guns and 29 fast tanks. The retreat was attributed to lack of supplies.

The intense cold is hampering Soviet air activity. Meantime, the Finnish tactics, apart from trench warfare, in the Karelian Isthmus, are directed at destroying the enemy's morale by harassing operations by patrols which unexpectedly attack their rear and flanks, keeping the Russians in constant fear of being cut off from their supplies and starved and frozen.

OBSERVERS ASTONISHED

Military observers are astonished at the Finns' incredible contempt for heavy masses of men and machinery, especially tanks.

The Finns brilliantly produced a number of "nursery tricks," by which a single man put a tank out of action. In some cases, a Finnish soldier leapt on to a tank and hit the machine-gun with a heavy pole, bending its barrel and then dealing with it at leisure.

The Russians apparently found it necessary to bring up reinforcements on several fronts and, in one sector, they have put into the line cadets who are being trained as officers.

SOVIET AIR RAIDS

HELSINKI, Jan. 18 (Reuter)—It is now becoming clear that Soviet air raids over Finland are aimed at anything on sight, even at private individuals, miles from any fighting front.

In future, therefore, the Finns will no longer be issued the names of the towns that are bombed.

Typical of the herding of the Finnish airmen fighting the Soviet

EXPLOSION IN POWDER FACTORY

WINDOWS BROKEN FOR 15 MILES

GIBBSTOWN (New Jersey), Jan. 18 (Reuter)—An explosion of 6,000 pounds of nitroglycerine wrecked the building of a powder factory owned by the Dupont Denemours Company.

The explosion, which was at first believed to be an earthquake, shattered windows fifteen miles distant in the suburbs of Philadelphia and, according to first reports, two men are missing.

TWO KILLED

A later message states that two persons were killed and one injured in the explosion.

The Police and Federal Bureau of Investigation officials have started enquiries, but are withholding comment in regard to whether there was any possibility of sabotage.

"TO CONTROL THE SEAS"

U.S. ADMIRAL'S PLEA FOR BIGGER NAVY

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18 (Reuter)—The United States should have a swarm of destroyers "to control the seas," in the event of war, declared Rear-Adm. S.M. Robinson, Chief of Naval Engineering, testifying before the Naval Affairs Committee of the House of Representatives.

REPLY TO CRITICISM

He was defending the programming for building destroyers, against the criticism of Mr. Vinson, who said that, perhaps, the destroyer figures in the Naval Expansion Bill were too large.

Rear-Adm. Robinson added: "Our situation is much like that of England in regard to control of the seas. A nation like Germany, at the outbreak of war, must surrender control of the seas."

DUTCH SHIP WAS SUNK BECAUSE SHE CARRIED CARGO FOR S. AFRICA

LISBON, Jan. 18 (REUTERS)—THE CREW OF THE DUTCH VESSEL ARENDSKERK, WHICH WAS TORPEDOED BY A NAZI SUBMARINE, HAVE BEEN LANDED BY THE DUTCH LINER POELAU BRAS.

The Arendskerck's Captain, Mr. C. H. J. Wyker, interviewed by Reuter, said that they were bound for Capetown and Durban with a general cargo.

Record U.S. Exports In December

LARGE SHIPMENTS FOR ALLIES

NEW YORK, Jan. 18 (Reuter)—Exports from the United States last month amounted to $358,000,000—the largest for nearly a decade, $11,000,000 more than in November and $92,000,000 higher than in December, 1938.

PRINCIPAL FACTORS

Large shipments of aeroplanes, petroleum and metals to the Allies constituted the principal factors in the enlarged total. Aeroplanes alone were valued at $29,000,000 and accounted for most of the increase.

Anglo-French purchases increased from $44,000,000 in November to $88,000,000 in December.

COTTON EXPORTS

Exports of cotton also increased suddenly from $30,000,000 to $43,000,000.

Latin-American countries were turning to the U.S. owing to the war and had increased their purchases by about $8,000,000 to $75,000,000, while purchases from Asiatic countries had swelled by about $15,000,000 to $68,000,000.

U.S. TOBACCO IMPORTS

Special to the H.K. Daily Press LONDON, Jan. 18 (Havas)—The Government has decided to temporarily interrupt imports of American tobacco of which two-and-a-half years' supply is already stored in Britain.

Henceforth, Virginia tobacco will be no more used alone in cigarettes but will be mixed with ten or fifteen per cent. Turkish or Greek tobacco.

The submarine ordered the Arendskerck to halt, which she did, but the submarine continued firing.

In response to the German's orders the Captain sent the First Officer to the submarine with the ship's papers.

The officer stayed in the submarine for half-an-hour with the Captain, who said that he was very sorry to have to sink the ship, as the cargo was contraband, not owing to its nature but because of its destination, South Africa, an enemy country.

NAZI KINDNESS

The Chief Officer was deeply impressed by the kindness of the German captain, who said it was really a pity to sink such a fine ship.

Captain Wyker added that the Arendskerck was only a year old and was considered one of the best cargo boats in the world.

The submarine herself towed back the boat with the First Officer and gave the crew half-an-hour to leave.

After they had pulled away in three boats, they saw the ship blown up. They were picked up two hours later.

SWEDISH SHIP SEIZED

STOCKHOLM, Jan. 18 (Reuter)—The Swedish steamer Burger Jarl, destined for Stockholm from Latvia with fifty passengers, was captured by the Germans and taken to Swinemunde.

BELGIAN SHIP STRIKES MINE

LONDON, Jan. 18 (Reuter)—The Belgian steamer Josephine Charlotte (3,422 tons) struck a mine yesterday afternoon and sank. The captain and crew were rescued.

Legislation For Restricting U.S. Exports To Japan Is Predicted

PROPOSALS BEFORE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18 (Reuter)—Senator Pittman stated that the U.S. Senate Foreign Relations Committee will take up the whole question of Japanese-American relations, at its first meeting on Jan. 31. Mr. Cordell Hull will probably be asked for reports on the progress of negotiations on a possible new trade treaty.

TWO PROPOSALS

Two proposals for an embargo on exports to Japan, as well as a resolution to invoke the Neutrality Act in connection with the Sino-Japanese war will also be before the Committee.

Senator Gillette, who on Tuesday introduced a resolution calling on Congress to set in motion the machinery operating the Neutrality Act in the Far East conflict, predicted to reporters yesterday that the Committee would approve of legislation restricting exports to Japan.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18 (Reuter)—Reports from Tokyo, indicating that America's attitude towards the trade talks with Japan and other pending problems might force Japan to seek rapprochement with Moscow are doing nothing to disturb Washington's calm concerning the pending abrogation of the Trade Treaty.

The matter is arousing very small public interest, and attention is generally now being focussed on European affairs, especially the problem of aiding the Finns.

AFTER EXPIRATION

A Havas message adds that Senator Pittman, after the expiration of the trade treaty with Japan on Jan. 26, will study the situation again in order to determine what conditions for an embargo will be most favourable to U.S. interests.

Press Comment On Speeches By Premier, Hore - Belisha

LONDON, Jan. 18 (Reuter)—Monday's speeches by Mr. Hore Belisha and Mr. Neville Chamberlain naturally provided the British press with an almost inexhaustible subject for comment. On one point all are unanimous in their praise for the moderation and dignity of Mr. Hore Belisha's speech.

On the general question of whether the resignation was best in the interests of the steady prosecution of the war, there is also fairly general, though not entire, agreement.

Such comment as there is, is to the effect that even now no one is any wiser as to the reasons for the change.

The Times says that Mr. Hore Belisha was heard by his fellow members with approval and respect due to the difficult task well and patriotically performed. He said nothing which either he or his country might later regret and made short work of the recent attempts to dramatise it in terms of sabotage and conspiracy.

NO SHIFT POLICY

The Prime Minister's assurances corroborated this and the two statements together dispose, for all time, all suggestions that some shift policy was behind the various changes.

The Daily Telegraph is of the opinion that what caused the changes was not so much a matter of policy as a clash of temperament, while the Manchester Guardian observes that it really looks as though Mr. Hore Belisha had been lacking in tact.

The Manchester Guardian has nothing but praise for Mr. Hore Belisha's behaviour on Monday and applauds his expressed desire that the work which has been done, and is being done, should not be marred.

UNREAL ATMOSPHERE On the other hand, the News Chronicle feels that Mr. Chamber-

FINDING SEATS IN COMMONS FOR NEW MINISTERS

LONDON, Jan. 18 (Reuter)—As a result of the efforts to find Parliamentary seats for the new Ministers Sir Andrew Duncan and Sir John Reith, it is expected that Sir Alan Anderson will resign from the city of London and Sir Charles Barrie from Southampton. Neither Labour nor Liberals would oppose the new ministers.

ARE YOU A SLEEPING BEAUTY?

Just as permanent waves and cosmetics are necessary to beauty, so is sleep.

Sleep is nature's restorer and will give a daily renewal of beauty which cannot be obtained by any other method.

It cannot perform miracles, and will not make your hair wavy; but it will help to restore health, upon which all beauty is founded.

We all know that sleep is necessary to maintain life, but very few of us realise that there are just as many rules necessary, and which should be observed, as in any other method of obtaining beauty.

Because deep, sound, healthful slumber is a beauty giver. But what use courting beauty when we go to bed with the day's make-up still clogging the skin.

Along night's rest will store up fresh energy, will help keep the skin clear and the eyes white and sparkling, but it cannot prevent open pores when the skin is covered with irritating grit.

REMOVE COSMETICS

Therefore make certain that every scrap of cosmetic is removed with warm water and soap, and then apply a little skin food so that the underlying tissues will be rejuvenated whilst you are peacefully slumbering.

But do you slumber peacefully, or is your rest disturbed. Sleep to be helpful, must be sound and deep, not elusive. Nor should it be disturbed with dreams. Very often sleep is hard to woo because you do not know how to relax. Many people have a habit of clenching their jaws. This will prevent sleep coming quickly.

When you first slip in between those sheets, make up your mind that every muscle in the body will become loose and unstrained. Not a taut muscle should be present, and remember to allow those jaws to relax as well. No teeth clenching, please.

Dreams are caused by the continuation of mental activities associated with the day's doings, or by meals eaten irregularly or taken just before retiring.

Of course, ill-health can also cause dreams and nightmares, but in this case you should consult a physician.

AMOUNT OF SLEEP

The amount of sleep necessary for each person is a debatable point. Some men have as few as three hours daily. But they do not have to worry about their looks. Women, if they wish to preserve their beauty, will need much more sleep than this, and although it is not necessary to go to bed with the fowls, it is always wise to receive our full quota of sleep during the dark, noiseless hours.

Even this is not essential, as many of the world's most beautiful women do not retire until the quiet early hours of the morning, but they have an advantage over you and I. They do not have to arise early to face another day's toil, but even the actress and film star, even though they retire at unearthly hours, still see that they have sufficient slumber.

If you find that it is hard to drop off to sleep, try a few minutes at the following exercise, which will draw the blood away from your head—Lie down on the floor, placing the hands on the hips, and then sit up slowly, keeping the legs straight in front of you. Repeat this exercise 10 times.

READING IN BED

Whilst the habit of reading in bed is conducive to sleep with some people, on others it has the opposite effect, and in this matter we must allow our own judgment to be the arbiter.

The pillow we use should neither be too high nor too low. Low, soft pillows are conducive to double-chins. A hard pillow is the best foundation for your head.

While it is immaterial upon which side we lie, it is sometimes found that it is easier to fall asleep whilst lying on the right side. The reason for this is that the heart then functions best.

BENEFIT OF HOT BATH

And then there is the matter of your supper or bed-time drink. If you are of a nervous disposition and are a trifle underweight, you will find that a glass of warm milk is an excellent bed-time drink. Not only is it fastening, but it helps you achieve deep, restful slumber. If you are overweight, or are liable to suffer from constipation, a fruit drink should be slowly sipped whilst you are lying between the sheets.

The ravages of insufficient sleep soon take their toll. Not only does our complexion suffer, but we also lose our appetite, cannot concentrate, and become quite irritable.

And the peculiar thing about sleep is that the more we worry about it the harder it is to woo. Sleeplessness begets sleeplessness, and we then lay awake for many hours wondering how many more hours it will be before we do drop off to sleep.

If you find that you have been in bed for some time and sleep is still as far as ever, hop out of bed, have a warm bath, and then straight back between the warm sheets, you will immediately drop off into sound slumber.

But, remember to relax. Don't curl up in bed, and don't take your worries to bed with you. Never fear, they will still be there in the morning, and most likely not half so bad as they appeared during the night.

Sound sleep is essential for your health, and more important than face cream for beauty.

WOMAN'S INTERESTS

HATS ARE MADE TO MEASURE

The ready-made hat has no place in the wardrobe of the well-dressed Frenchwoman. Far too personal and too sacred is it to be assumed without the special fitting, the individual touch, which shall distinguish it from all others.

Obviously this also implies some knowledge on the part of the wearer, and particularly is this the case at present, when hats seem to be anything that can be attached to the head, from an umbrella inside out to the wattles of the farmyard.

While all these eccentricities—a net to which is attached a bunch of flowers, a bow which is mysteriously kept at the perpendicular—may be seen in Paris just now, the better-dressed people keep them for odd occasions rather than for the general menu, content to exaggerate or adapt a little fashions which have obtained on well-known, becoming lines.

The Lelong hat is a good example of this adaptation. Actually it is the usual large hat for special summer occasions made different by the breaking up of the crown. It is of black Panama straw with a bold sweeping line, and the ribbon emphasises the vagaries of the crown.

But while it has its own way, it is well within the tradition, and has individuality rather than eccentricity. It is worn, incidentally, with a little coat of embroidered white silk.

SHAPED LIKE A CROWN

A shape which, in different guises, is much in vogue now is that of the crown or inverted-shade. This fits down upon the head, with the brim rising straight from the head and widening out upwards like a crown. At its most extreme it looks like the umbrella which has turned inside out in order to become a hat.

A medium version is in black felt, turned up to a height of anything from six to eight inches—when on the head is a good deal. This shows off the hair, especially at the back, and is suited for the page-boy coiffures with small rolls of hair at the side.

Felt is much used this year, whether in response to the weather or to a revived fashion. But the crown hat may be made of either felt or straw, and in the latter case the harder surface of the wall of straw may be broken with two or three dead-white

HOLBEIN HAT

Lelong has an immense crown or spreading Holbein hat broken only on one side at the top by some flat feathers. It looks charming with its inverted lamp-shade effect upon the plain page-boy hair.

The perfect hat is as rare as any other form of perfection. It must have almost too many qualities, including that of being suitable for the greatest possible number of occasions. Small black hats are being made in fine straw which have a brim that turns up all round. This could develop easily into a tricorne. Instead, it is simply pushed up a little on the side front and clinched with a decoration in metal, pearl, embroidery according to taste.

Actually it depends upon the clever shape of the crown, which is perhaps 3½ inches high, slants slightly rounded top. This hat can be worn with suits, with dark dresses, with almost any dress; in short, which is not for the more ceremonial purposes. In each case it is made for the special head.

FELTS AND STRAWS

Felts and straws vie with each other, and owing to the bad weather the felts have had it so far in Paris. There are large numbers of small black felts some with the exaggerated postman's peak, some with a dip in front and behind and rising at the sides, some with a one-side effect.

For the warmer weather the straws are pushing to the front, but even so they still have to cope with the many light summer felts in all the yellows, beiges, bois de rose, and pastel colourings.

Flat hats are much seen, and they are made comfortable by being composed of a cap which fits the head, on to which a brim is set slantwise and encircling, as were the Saturn with a ring. Oddments are many. The bunch of ribbon or flowers on the top of the head still makes many people look like vegetables.

There are drooping hats of felt or straw, like those worn over their curls by Second Empire beauties. They usually have bright variegated ribbon with tails hanging down behind. There are large yellow felt hats trimmed perhaps with single yellow arum, hats with a dip and swathed silk round them, clinched with a buckle in front.

This is not an easy year for hats, but Paris is full of such as could be worn by those for whom eccentricity is not the greatest attraction.

SHELAND SHAWL TURBAN

SHELAND SHAWL

Fashion has discovered a novel way of using the Sheland shawl. One of these shawls can be turned into the smartest of new millinery models by skilful draping on shaped head fittings. Colours such as sky and royal blue, black and brown, are used with snood drapery into which the hair can be tucked or not.

Diversions from this drapery are achieved through shawl ends dipping over the hair in frothy cascades or split panels drawn forward from nape and finishing bow-tie scarf-fashion at front.

One model is in black felt faced with turquoise blue and is in two separate pieces. A frankly classic pill-box, it has halo cuff with little strings to close it when posed bonnet or halo wise on to the pill-box.

Both items can be worn apart.

Round The Shops

THE COLD SNAP seems to have set in earnest, and the need for smart warm attire to suit every one's pocket has become urgent.

The leading shops have a wide range of winter wear to suit the most exacting tastes and priced most reasonably.

Here are a few for guidance.

SMART AND COSY:

LANE CRAWFORD is offering a special line in smart and cosy bedroom slippers this week. They can be obtained in brocade, silk and jaeger, with heels or without.

Travelling slippers in smooth leather, which fold into a little bag to match, are another attractive line. These are presented in beautiful shades of brocade and silk in a variety of colours—pink, blue, green and turquoise—and are certainly just the thing for cold and chilly nights.

TIPS FROM AMERICA IN STOCKING ECONOMY

Stockings being one of the biggest of the minor items in a girl's wardrobe, care needs to be exercised to prolong the life of every pair.

Practical tips, which, if carried out, will make for economy, are given here by an American business girl.

American girls have a reputation for foot neatness and we keep that reputation by a zealous care of our shoes and stockings.

To make our silk stockings fit well we rinse them in cold water with a spoonful of vinegar before washing them. In the actual washing process we seldom, if ever, use soap at all. If this plan is adopted it does away with any wrinkles and bad fitting, which are so annoying with new silken hose.

Our method of washing artificial silk hose practically doubles its life of wear.

We add a small tablespoon of salt to a pint of tepid water and allow it to dissolve, then place the stockings in the water and squeeze out all superfluous liquid.

If the hose is still soiled, we put it into a bowl containing soap suds, squeeze again; then hang up to dry by the IRONS. This method lengthens the life of artificial silk

since the salt strengthens the fabric and "sets" the dye.

"SPOT PROOF"

Silk stockings for wearing in wet weather we "spot proof" by adding a few drops of methylated spirit to the rinsing water after washing. This is equally effective for silk or artificial silk stockings, which, treated in this way, do not become unsightly by rain drops.

To prevent that ugly "shine" in newly-washed silken hose—especially artificial silk—do not rinse them through cold water, but through warm water. This warming expands the fibre of the silken strands to full capacity by the time the stockings are dry, and any ugly shine is done away with.

Finally, we avoid throwing mud-splashed silken hose aside and leave them for several days before washing out the stains. By that time the marks are difficult to remove without much rubbing—which is bad for silken strands, no matter if real or artificial.

VICIOUS SPIRAL
OF INCREASING
PRICESTrades Union Denies Responsibility

LONDON, Jan. 18 (BWS)—The
report of Trades Union General Council denies responsibility for starting what has been called a vicious spiral, which, it has been suggested, might, if unchecked,
develop on the lines which occurred in the last war when wages
tried in vain to catch up with the rise in food prices.

EXTENSION OF RATIONS
Recalling the Chancellor of Ex-
chequer's address to the Joint Advisory Council, emphasizing the desirability of avoiding this spiral,
the report notes that individual
unions, and not the Council itself,
were responsible for wages negotiations and added that, in order to prevent the spiral, the Council
had pressed strongly for the extension of rationing to the greatest practicable limits and for the most
rigid control of prices and profits.

After ruling easier on hedge-selling and poor support, the market closed steady.

NEW YORK COTTON: The market was easier on early foreign selling and local liquidation, but later buying broadened, especially on report of encouraging cotton goods sales. The undertone is good but Washington news is indefinite.

NEW YORK RUBBER: There has been some scattered factory interest and a scarcity of shipment offerings, further talk of an unchanged quota for the second quarter and the possibility of some improvement in consumption figures during January are all stimulating factors.

CHICAGO WHEAT: Cold weather, possible crop damage as a result of the recent heavy snow fall, good export demand of Canadian wheat and unfavourable foreign crop advices, aided a good rally, but outside interest and foreign export demand which are necessary to maintain the advances are still absent.

NEW YORK STOCKS: Previous close, 145.67; Today's close, 145.81; Change, up 14.

EXTRA-SETTLEMENT POLICE ISSUE

Special to the H.K. Daily Press SHANGHAI, Jan. 18 (Havas).—A new police organisation to control extra-settlement roads is expected shortly on the issue of conversations at present taking place between Mr. Godfrey Phillips, Secretary General of the Shanghai Municipal Council, and Major Fu Siao-en of the Shanghai Special Municipality, whereby these two bodies would create an "extra-settlement police" to control all areas of the outside roads which have been the cause of many dissensions during the past.

The extra-settlement police will be headed by a commissioner selected by the "Shanghai Special Municipality" with a deputy appointed by the Shanghai Municipal Council.

The latter body is also demanding the suppression of all gambling and opium dens located in the extra-settlement area.

He added: "We don't need orders from abroad on our relations with Finland. We judge for ourselves how best to serve her cause and that of the northern states."

INTERPORT HOCKEY DATE FIXED

The Interport hockey match against Macao will be played on Easter Sunday, March 24. It was decided at the monthly meeting of the Hongkong Hockey Association Council, at St. Andrew's Church Hall yesterday evening. This date is subject, however, to confirmation by the Macao Hockey Association.

The Council decided also to uphold the decision of the Hockey Umpires Association in respect of a protest by the Royal Engineers against an umpire's ruling disallowing a goal against Radio and Postal Sports Club in a tournament match three weeks ago. The protest was rejected by the Hockey Umpires Association.

Those present at the meeting were Lt. Gunner, R.N., in the Chair, Mr. D. T. Smith, Hon. Secretary, Mr. A. M. Xavier, Mr. J. Goncalves, Lt. Russell, R.A., and Mr. A. E. P. Guest.

S. AFRICA ARMY MAY HAVE VITAL PART TO PLAY

CAPE TOWN, Jan. 18 (Reuter).—The belief that "it was by no means certain that the African continent would not become a theatre of possibly the most severe fighting that the war would produce," was expressed by the Minister for Mines, Colonel Stallard, when addressing a meeting of the Dominion Party of which he is leader.

Colonel Stallard was explaining why it was necessary for the Government to refuse permission to South Africans to go overseas to serve with the British forces, and said that the South African Army might have an important and vital part to play.

BUDAPEST, JAN. 18 (Havas).—RELIABLE INFORMATION FROM SLOVAKIA INDICATES THAT THE GERMAN ARMY IS ATTEMPTING TO STRENGTHEN ITS GRIP ON THE COUNTRY.

FEVERISH ACTIVITY
The city of Presov, which is an important railway centre, has been placed under authority of a member of the German General Staff.

Feverish activity is going on on the Hungarian-Ruthenian frontiers, where German engineers are improving and opening new roads. Many new troops are expected to arrive soon and all hotels have been commandeered for German officers who are expected to arrive on Feb. 1.

ELABORATE FLOOD MEASURES

LONDON, Jan. 18 (Reuter).—Reuter's special correspondent with the French Forces reports that although there is a fringe of ice on the shores of the North Sea, the elaborate flooding measures planned by the French Army at the Northern extremity of the Western Front are ready to be put into force at a moment's notice.

Within a few hours, vast tracts of land could be made impassable for an advancing army. The measures consist mainly of a reversal of the peace-time method of regulating the network of canals in the district. Normally the canal locks are closed at high tide and opened at low tide in order to allow the excess fresh water to run out.

Special efforts would at first saturate the ground with fresh water, so that the salt water should damage the rich soil as little as possible. Steps are also already to be taken to prevent any artificial floods spreading to the ground occupied by the French troops. These measures include a system of dams, which would convert the district into a vast lake, virtually impassable to mechanised or other troops.
